
Glass Lid with Light Shielding and AR Coating

By light shielding coating with AR coated glass, it reduces reflected light causes flare. It realizes a high performance of image sensors that requires loss noise.

Features

- The whole process from thin film coating design to mass production is completed in-house.
- High reliability of coating meets automotive requirements
- High transmittance by AR coating

